Senate Resolution 555

Senator Parkhouse offered the following resolution:

Whereas, There is a thriving community located in Palo Pinto County with a background of the picturesque Palo Pinto mountains, which began long before the turn of the century as a hiding place for Indians and desperados and later distinguished itself as a terminus of the Texas and Pacific Railroad; and by the discovery of waters known to have healing qualities then constructed and distinguished itself as one of the outstanding health spas and resort areas in the great State of Texas; and

Whereas, It distinguished itself by opening a hotel shortly before the stock market crash of 1929 which was one of two hotels in the United States with a swimming pool, and which at that time represented an investment of more than $4,500,000 and was one of the nation's most luxurious places of accommodation; and

Whereas, Due to the perspicacity and the ingenuity of the people this thriving city of Mineral Wells was given a claim as the Texas midwinter playground and as such attracted to the State of Texas many tourists from other portions of the nation; and

Whereas, The resort facilities of the Baker Hotel, consisting of twelve stories and 400 rooms, with its artistic finish, its entertainment features and its park facilities, which lays claim to the best mineral waters of the world, has drawn patrons from all sections of the country and particularly from the Southwest for rest, recuperation, recreation and play; and

Whereas, It has been the playground of kings and royalty and the symbol of health for the less fortunate; and

Whereas, The Baker Hotel, after more than thirty years of continuous operation, closed its doors in May of 1963; and

Whereas, The enterprising citizens of this thriving community, even while the hotel had not a single occupant, continued to keep it ready and to prepare it for the footsteps of guests that would eventually arrive when it should be again reopened; and

Whereas, The citizens of the City of Mineral Wells have now achieved the reopening of this historic landmark; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of Texas, That the citizens of the City of Mineral Wells and its elected officials and those who have contributed of their time, their money, and their talents in effecting the reopening of the Baker Hotel be commended for again restoring this community to its rightful status among the health resorts of the nation and again allowing it to contribute to the economy of the community and of the State and to attract to the State visitors from far and wide who seek its luxurious atmosphere, and its homelike friendliness, and its restful and healing facilities; and that the members of that great community be heralded for their continuous efforts and dogged determination that this bright spot on the horizon should not grace the community as a ghost, but that it should stand as a spire and an inspiration for years to come in the true spirit of the people and of this State.

PARKHOUSE CREIGHTON
